The following pages contain the procedures adopted by the Columbia City Police Department. Applicants or potential applicants reviewing these procedures should keep in mind that each step outlined is a separate and distinct requirement calling for commitment on their part, and overall constitute a total process. Each step must be successfully completed in order to meet eligibility requirements.

It is the responsibility of each applicant to fully understand and complete each step as outlined. The Columbia City Police Department will assist each applicant as needed or requested in fully understanding all procedures and requirements. Any applicant who wishes may contact the Administrative Offices of the Columbia City Police Department by calling the dispatch center at 260-248-5121, with questions or for further clarification of any part of this procedure.

1. FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT AND FORMATION OF HIRING POOL:

The hiring procedure for the Columbia City Police Department Officers will begin with a formal announcement that applications are being accepted. These applications may be obtained from the police department or online at columbiacitypolice.us. Every attempt will be made by the police department to publicize its formation of a hiring pool by utilizing local newspapers and the internet to announce the application process.

Previous applications will not be retained and applicants who are interested will need to re-apply.

When the formation of a new applicant pool is announced, it will include dates during which applicants may be submitted and also locations may be picked up.

2. LETTER TO APPLICANT

Dear Applicant:

Attached you will find a copy of the Hiring Procedure used by the Columbia City Police Department. The purpose of this procedure is to ensure that the best-qualified applicants are selected to serve as police officers with the City of Columbia City, and that should you become a member of the police department, you can be proud to be a part of a truly professional organization.

This procedure and policy take into consideration requirements by the American Disabilities Act, The Public Employee's Retirement Fund, and the City of Columbia City's Board of Public Safety. Also included are any optional standards adopted by the Police Department's pension board under the laws of the State of Indiana.

The purpose of this packet is to inform you of all of the steps necessary for you to successfully complete to be considered for hiring by the Columbia City Police Department. You will see that the process is not an easy one and can take a significant commitment on your part in addition to being time consuming for both you and the persons involved in the hiring process.

The City of Columbia City is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to hiring only the most qualified individuals for its Police Department. With this in mind and as you review the attached material, we wish you well in your attempt to join a professional organization and in seeking what may be for you a truly rewarding career.

3. WRITTEN EXAMINATION FOR POLICE APPLICANTS:

After receiving and reviewing all applications for the police department, the applicants will be notified by letter regarding the next stage of the application process, which is the written examination. The police department administration will approve the written examination. The written examination will measure and grade qualities and skills deemed necessary in good police candidates. The specific written instrument or test may vary or change from process to process taking into consideration the intent of the department to stay current with the latest standards and professional thought processes dealing with applicant selection and additionally any legal considerations deemed appropriate by the city legal department.

Due to the number of individuals normally applying as applicants, it is imperative that the police department controls the applicant process for the best results and considerations for all applicants, and to assure that the process proceed in the most expeditious manner possible. For those reasons, applicants will be given adequate notification of the written testing process and are expected to attend the testing as outlined in the notification at the exact time and date(s) assigned by the department. Exceptions to this requirement will be made in only the most exigent circumstances.

4. AGILITY TESTING:

All individuals applying for a position with the Columbia City Police Department must participate in physical agility testing as outlined by state law. This testing procedure must measure muscular strength; muscular endurance; cardiovascular endurance and muscular skeletal flexibility In addition every attempt is made to assure that the events which comprise the test are job specific and are reviewed by the law enforcement training board as established under Indiana Code 5-2-1-3.

Each applicant who successfully passes the written test, is eligible to participate in the agility testing and will be given ample time to prepare for the test. Attached is a list of the minimum standard required. This will serve as notification to all applicants to allow time to prepare. Notification of the testing will be made by mail to each applicant indicating a date and time for the testing. Notification will include a complete package reviewing all agility tests to be conducted. A waiver or disclaimer will also be included and must be signed by the applicant and turned in on the day of testing. This disclaimer will release the city and police department from all liability should any injury occur during the agility testing process.

5. BOARD OF REVIEW

After completion of the agility testing all applicants' progress to date will be reviewed by a board comprised of upper level administrators of the police department as determined by the Chief of Police. Individual applicants will be notified subsequent to the meeting of the review board if they are to continue in the application process. If it should be determined that any applicant shall not continue in the hiring process, they will be notified in writing.

6. BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

After completion of the steps outlined thus far, each applicant will undergo an extensive background investigation. Areas included in this investigation will include but not be limited to verification of all information included in the employment application; person reference checks; employee checks; neighborhood checks; spouse or family interviews, and other areas that are deemed appropriate and allowable by law.

7. APPLICANT'S APPEARANCE BEFORE INTERVIEW BOARD

Following the completion of a background investigation it is required that each applicant personally appear before a board of review comprised of members of the Columbia City Police Department command and patrol staff. All information pertaining to the applicants to this point will be available for the board's consideration, and each applicant may be asked questions concerning this information during their appearance. In addition, the board will be considering the demeanor of each applicant and his or her maturity and confidence, as well as answers to questions posed to them.

Following the appearance of each applicant before the board, they will receive notification indicating one of three possible board decisions:

1. A conditional offer of employment will be offered to the applicant;
2. An offer to join our volunteer reserve program, if applications were being accepted for this;
3. The applicant will be eliminated from further consideration for employment at this time.

Once a conditional offer of employment is tendered to the applicant, he or she will continue in the process and must complete all remaining steps before being hired by the Columbia City Police Department.

8. PHYSICAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL EXAMINATION

Indiana State law mandates that each police applicant who receives a conditional offer of employment successfully pass a complete medical and psychological examination given by approved PERF (Public Employee Retirement Fund), physicians and psychologist. Once a conditional offer of employment is given, the department will make all arrangements for candidates to undergo examinations. The costs of the examinations are covered by the local Pension Board. Once received by the department, the examination results become property of the department. It is required that a PERF approved licensed physician and psychologist, "sign-off" on the PERF plan. Should the examining physician or psychologist not sign the PERF booklet (indicating unsuccessful completion of the PERF examination), the candidate CANNOT BE HIRED by the department.

9. APPROVAL BY THE LOCAL PENSION BOARD

Once signed PERF forms are received by the department from the examining physicians, the local Pension Board must also meet to sign the PERF booklet, The local Pension Board is also responsible for ensuring that the applicant meets any local standards or requirements adopted by the local board and the Board of Works.

10. FINAL APPROVAL BY STATE PERF BOARD

After THE LOCAL Pension Board signs the PERF booklets, they are sent to the state PERF board for examination and review. The state board will then determine if the applicant is eligible, (based on physicians' statements) to participate in the state PERF. They will further determine whether any excludable conditions exist that would prohibit the applicant from claiming disability pension benefits in the future. Those applicant passing the aforementioned mental and psychological examinations, and receiving endorsements from the local Pension Board and the state PERF board will be given an unconditional offer of employment by the Board of Works, and as soon as practical, be sworn in as a probationary police officer.
